Step 2: Select one activity for each book that you selected; at least two activities must be completed.

- Draw a map of the book's setting and explain how it contributes to the meaning, mood, tone, and theme.
- Create a PowerPoint "pitch" to a producer explaining why the story or the concept would or would not make a great movie.
- Create a collage with words and pictures around central idea, theme, or characters in the book.
- Design a T-shirt that promotes your book and write a jingle to sell it.
- Pick the most important word, line, image, object, or event in the book and explain why you chose it. Be sure to support your choice with examples.
- Create a timeline using drawings, magazine cutouts, pictures, and labels to show the main events, and how these events contribute to the meaning of the text.
- Use i-Movie or another video platform to create a book trailer advertising your book so someone else will want to read it.
